Insider Threat

Human Risk In A Digital Age

Sunette Runhaar

What Is an Insider Threat?

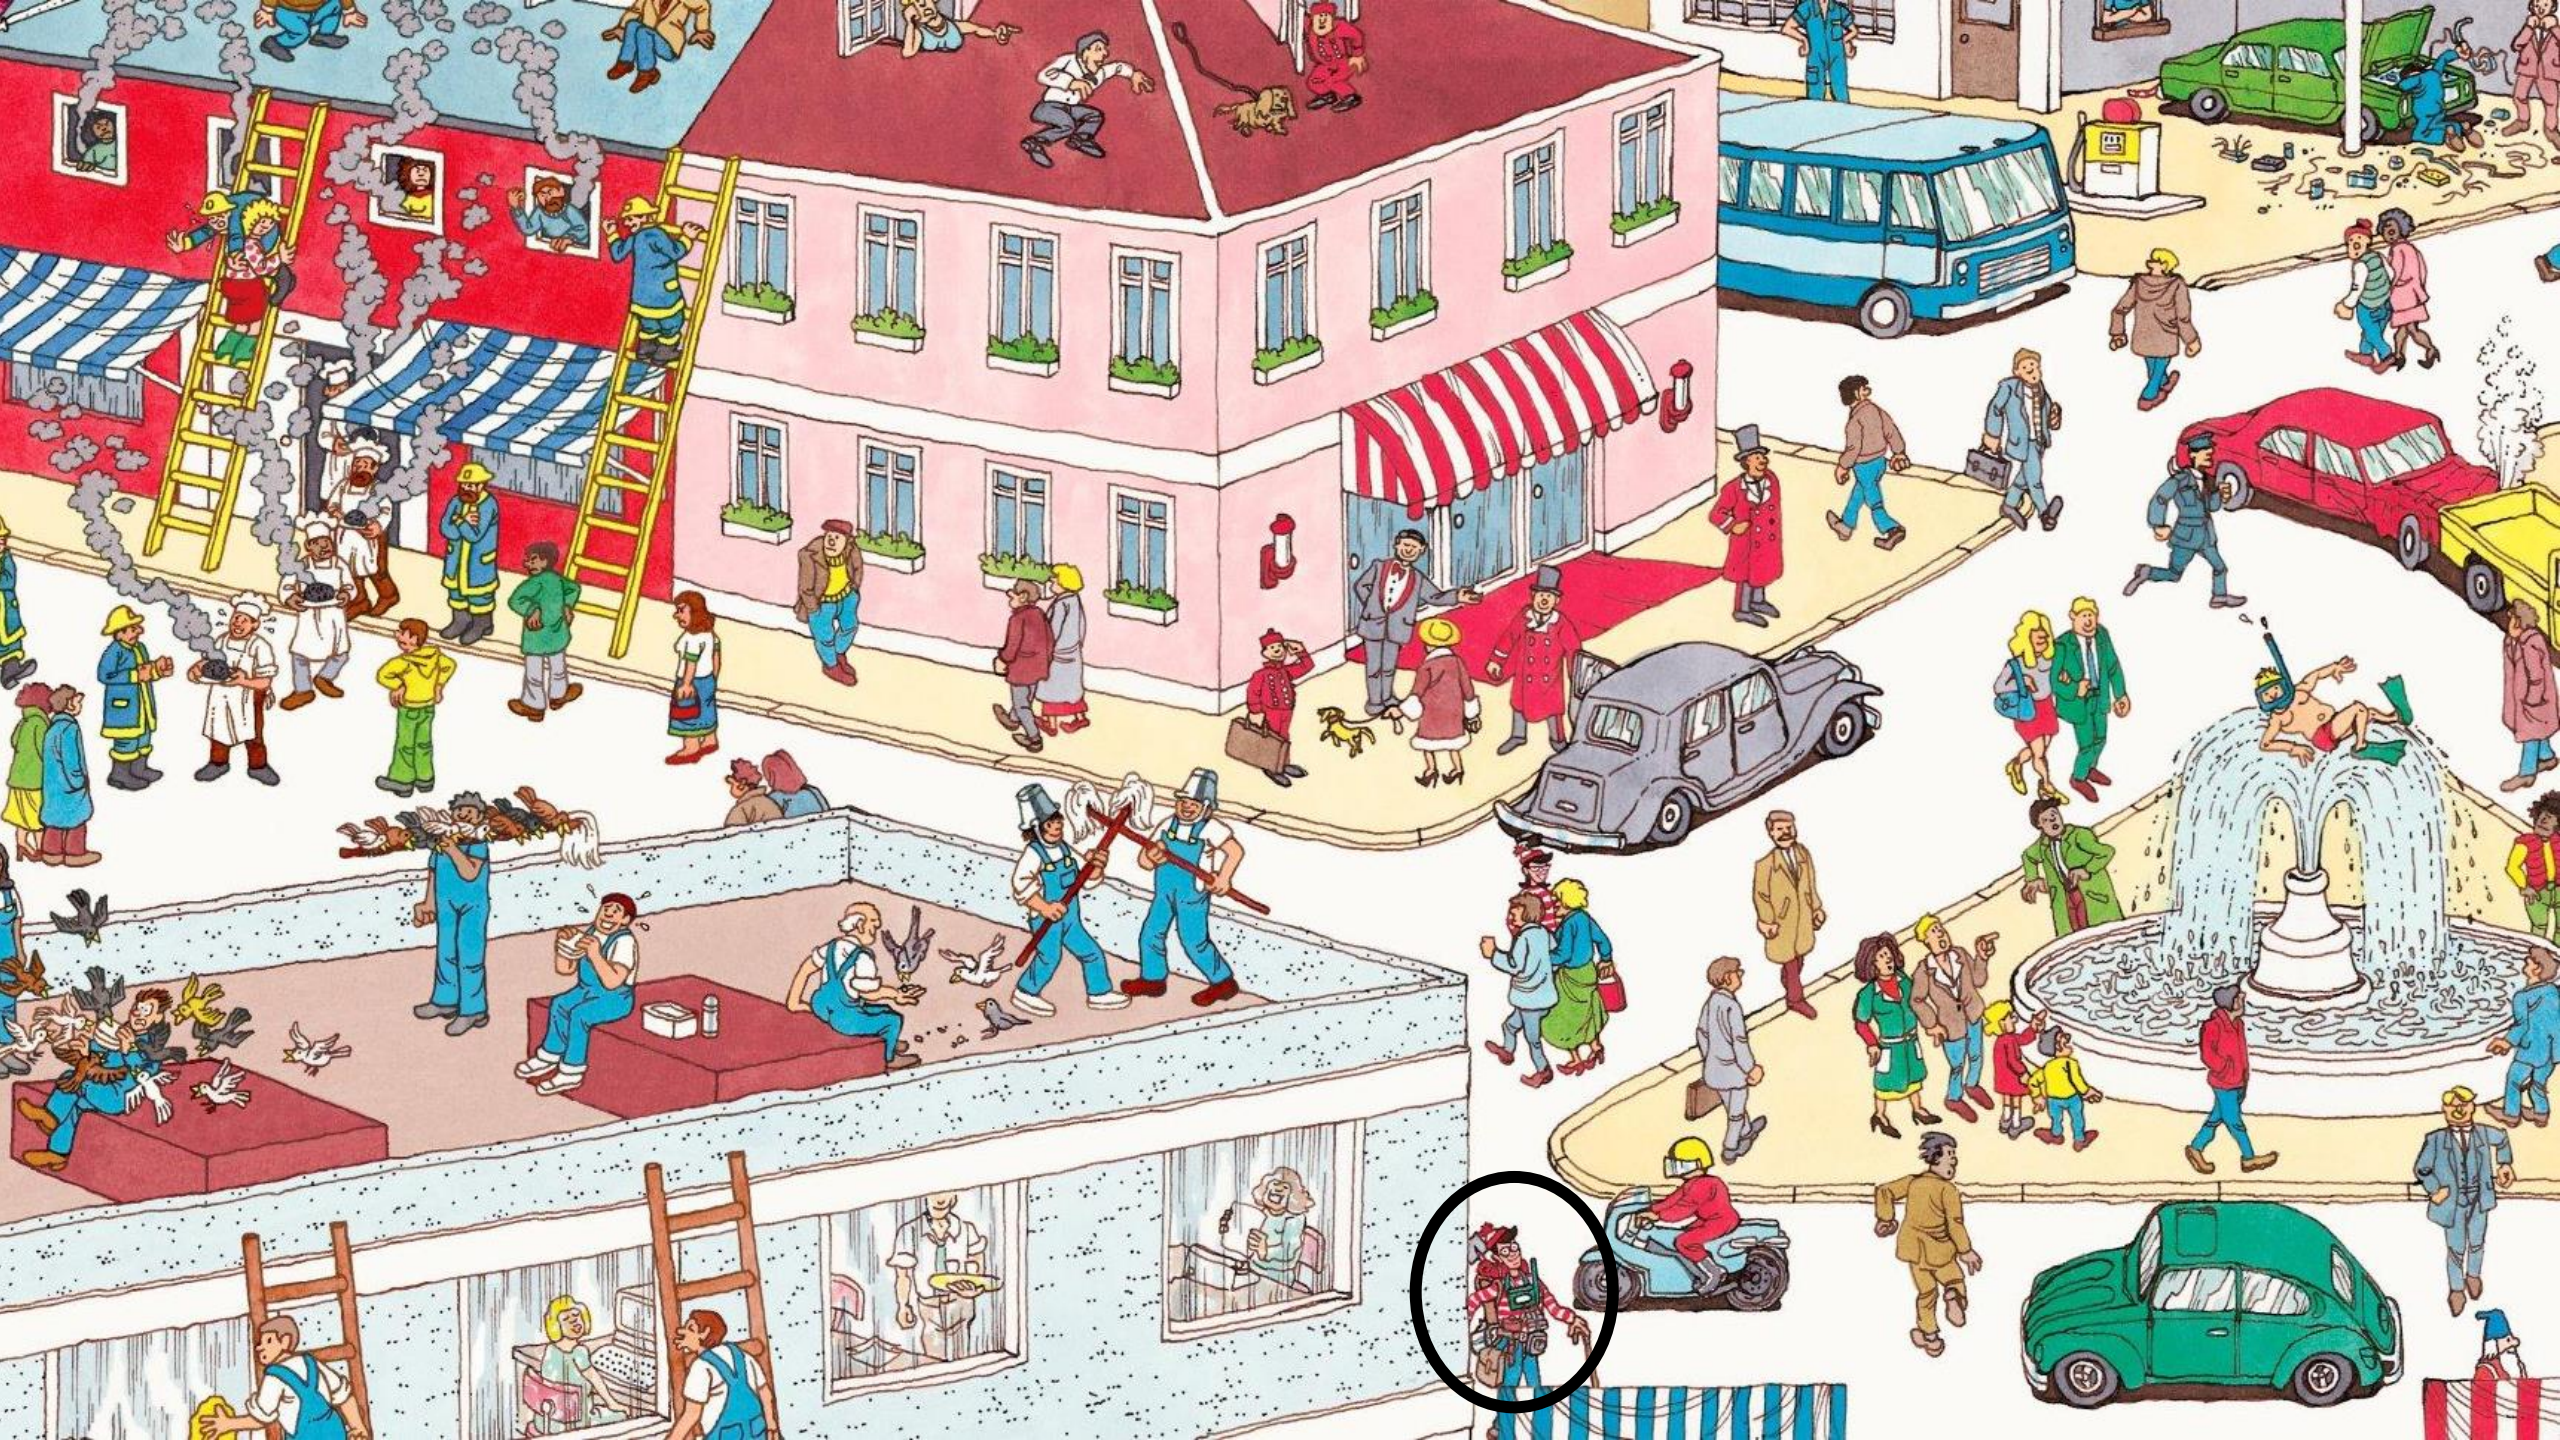
Insider

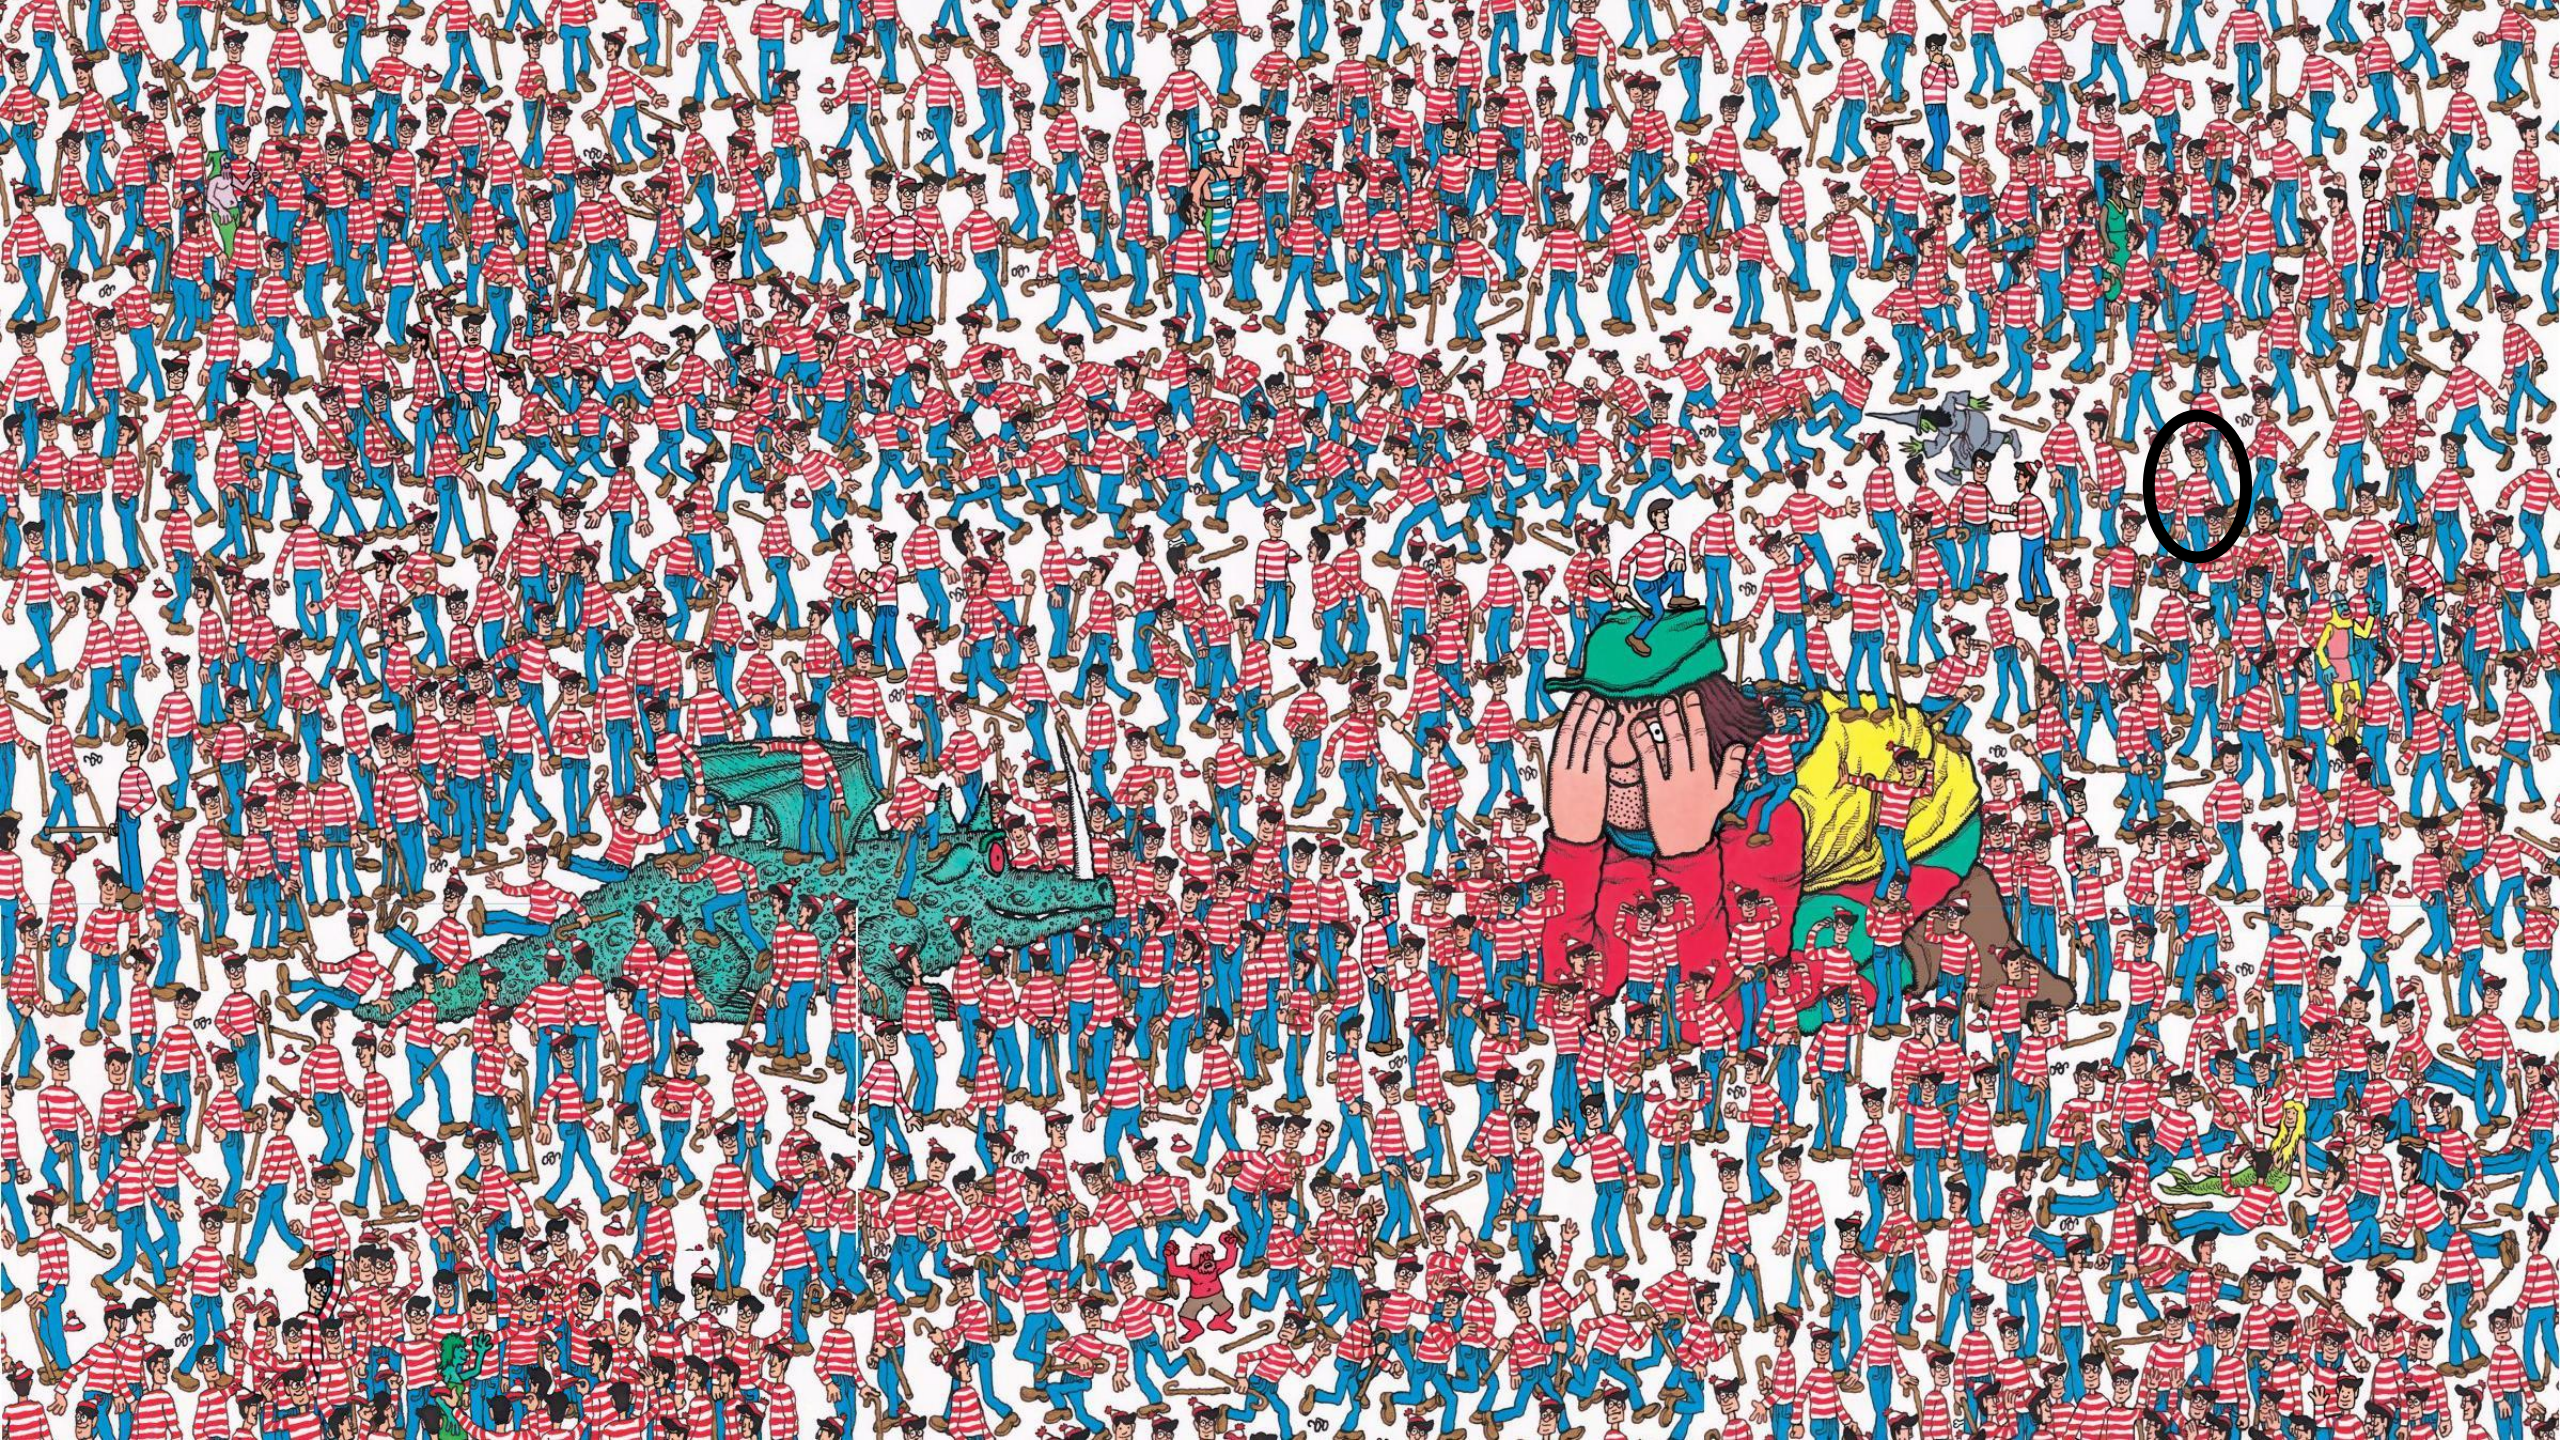
An individual who has (or had) legitimate and authorized access to an organization's assets.

Insider Threat

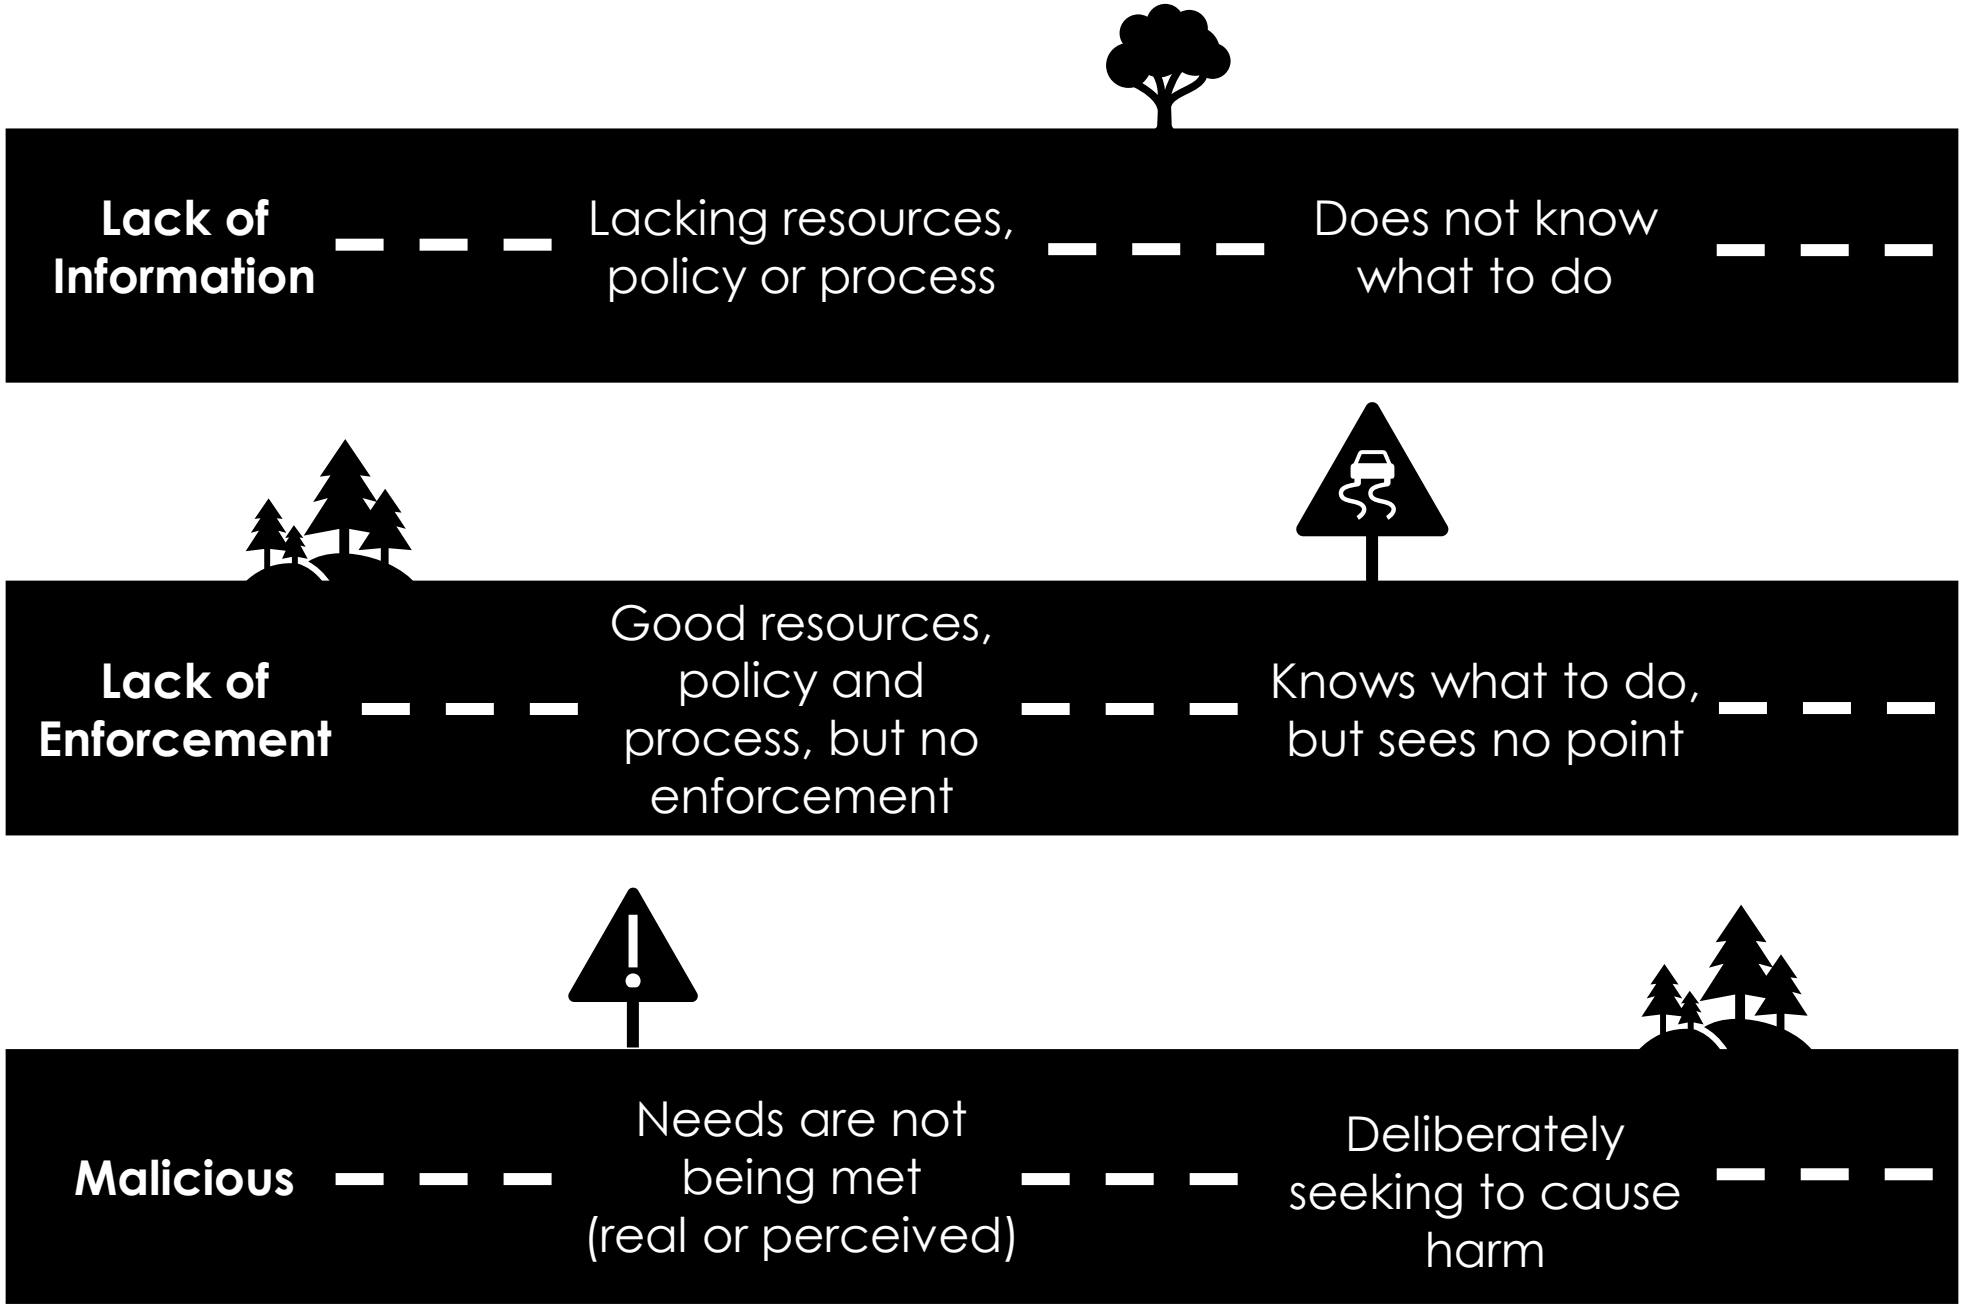
The risk that an insider will use their access to harm the organization, whether intentionally or unintentionally.

WHERE'S
WALDO?
SOCIAL DISTANCING EDITION





How Do They Develop?



IP Theft

Espionage

Sabotage

Fraud

Data Breach

Media Leak

Malware

Violence

Real Needs Not Being Met

Hostile working environment

Discrimination and bias

Lack of development opportunities

Gaslighting

Favourtism

Concerns ignored/downplayed

Undervalued

Perception Of Needs Not Being Met

Miscommunication

Unclear expectations

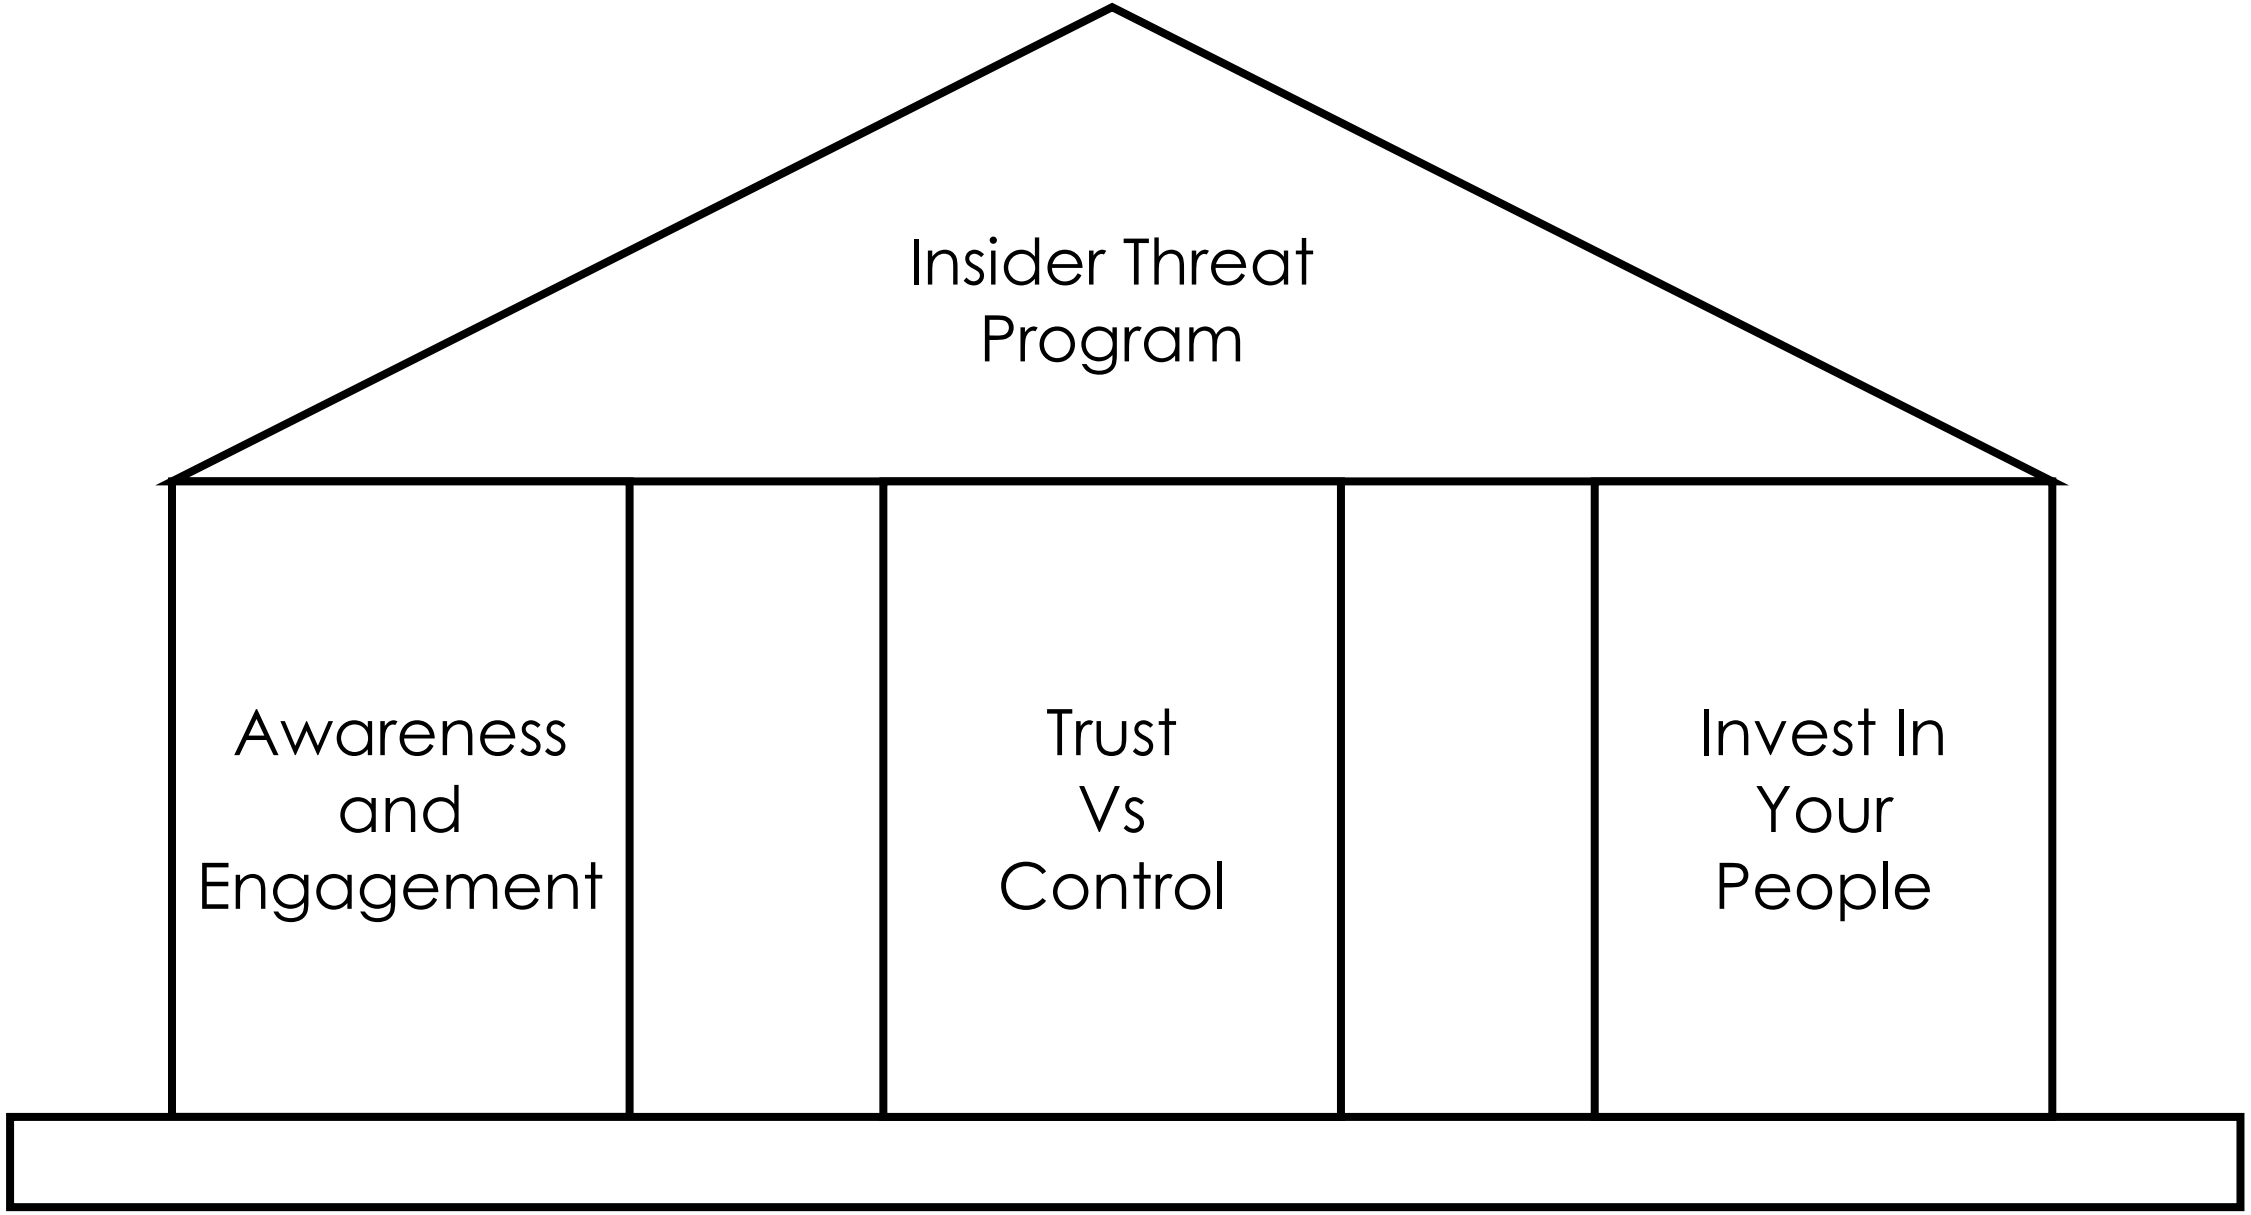
Disconnected from team

Personal pressures affecting work

Perceived lack of action

Sense of entitlement

What Can We Do?



Insider Threat
Program
Awareness and Engagement
Trust
Vs
Control
Invest In Your People

Trust

Training and Resources

General Access To Assets

Remote Work

Nudges

Etc.

Control

Removable Media Restrictions

No Software Downloads

Printer Restrictions

Principle of Least Privilege

Etc.

LIKE A BOSS

You belong.

Q &A